After that date, the Member shall (without being released from the obligation of payment of any sums due to the Association) have no Membership rights and shall not be entitled to participate in any Association activity.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

21. If, for any reason whatsoever, the Executive Committee is of the view that a Member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Association, the Committee may suspend the Member and give written notice of this to the Member ("the Committee's Notice"). The Committee's Notice must:
 - (a) Explain how the Member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Association;
 - (b) State what the Member must do in order to remedy the situation; or state that the Member must write to the Committee giving reasons why the Committee should not terminate the Member's Membership.
 - (c) State that if, within 14 days of the Member receiving the Committee's Notice the Committee is not satisfied, the Committee may in its absolute discretion immediately terminate the Member's Membership.
 - (d) State that if the Committee terminates the Member's Membership, the Member may appeal to the Association.
 - (e) Fourteen days after the Member received the Committee's Notice, the Committee may in its absolute discretion by majority vote terminate the Member's Membership by giving the Member written notice ("Termination Notice"), which takes immediate effect. The Termination Notice must state that the Member may appeal to the Association at the next Meeting by giving written notice to the Secretary ("Member's Notice") within 14 days of the Member's receipt of the Termination Notice.

- (f) If the Member gives the Member's Notice to the Secretary, the Member will have the right to be fairly heard at the next General Meeting of the Association. If the Member chooses, the Member may provide the Secretary with a written explanation of the events as the Member sees them ("the Member's Explanation"), and the Member may require the Secretary to give the Member's Explanation to every other Member at least 7 days before the General Meeting at which the Member will be heard.
 - (i) The member may choose to have a support person present at the meeting.
- (g) If the Member is not satisfied that the other Association Members have had sufficient time to consider the Member's Explanation, the Member may defer his or her right to be heard until the following General Meeting of the Association.
- (h) When the Member is heard at a General Meeting, the Association members may question the Member and the Committee Members. The Association shall then by majority vote decide whether to let the termination stand, or whether to reinstate the Member. The Association's decision will be final.
